IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of two hundred seventy (270) months. In accordance with the ruling from the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals on August 2, 2004 (U.S. v. Hammoud), and in the event the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines are found to be nonbinding on the sentencing courts, the Court treats the guidelines as advisory and imposes the sentence in this case pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553.

*This matter came before the Court upon government's motion to reduce sentence pursuant to Rule 35b following the Court's reduction from 270 months to 240 months pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3582 retroactive crack reduction; and the Court having granting the government's Rule 35b motion,

*IT IS ORDERED that the previous term of imprisonment of 240 months is hereby REDUCED and the defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of imprisonment for one hundred sixty-eight (168) months. All other conditions remain as previously imposed.

	The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
	The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
	The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district: at a.m. p.m. on as notified by the United States Marshal.
	The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons: before 2 p.m. on

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of ten (10) years. While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the mandatory and standard conditions of supervision outlined in Title 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d). The defendant shall also comply with the following special conditions:

- The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug/alcohol abuse, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer.
- The defendant shall participate in a program of self-help or training as deemed necessary by the probation

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994:

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter.

L	I The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
	The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable)
	The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the Probation Office. (Check, if applicable)
	The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the Probation Office. (Check, if applicable)
	The defendant shall participate in an approved rehabilitation program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable)

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer; the defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month; the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;

- the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities; the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment; the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
